

WCVS Boarding Policies

- For sanitation purposes, we are unable to accept any bedding items from home, toys, or leashes.
- I understand that my pet(s) must be in good general health, parasite free, and current on vaccines (Dogs- DHPP, Kennel cough, and Rabies; Cats- FVRCP and Rabies). If vaccines were not performed at WCVS, I agree to provide proof of current vaccinations at the time of check-in. If I cannot provide proof, I understand that my pet will be vaccinated appropriately at my expense.
- If external parasites (fleas, ticks, etc.) are present, the pet(s) will be treated at the owner's expense.
- I agree that WCVS will not be liable for any problems that develop provided reasonable care and precautions are taken.
- While your pet(s) is/are lodging with us, any change in their stool will be noted and a fecal analysis may be done. If needed, medications for diarrhea or other health concerns may be given. Additional charges may be incurred. I understand that every effort to contact me will be made in the event that a medical concern should arise.
- We provide Hill's Science Diet foods for the cats and dogs that board with us. If your pet has any special dietary needs, please bring their own food or we can provide prescription food at owner's expense.
- While your pet(s) is/are boarding with us, please be sure to bring any medications or preventatives they may need during their stay. There is no extra charge for administering medications.
- I understand that payment is due at the time services are rendered, and I agree to pay all the lodging charges in full, as well as any medical treatment expenses incurred.
- Boarding is charged by the night. You must pick up your pets during regular business hours.
- Multiple animals within a family lodging together is subject to a doctor's discretion.
- WCVS will only release your pet(s) to the owner on file unless prior written arrangements are noted on the boarding check-in cage card.

I, the undersigned, do hereby certify that I am the owner (or other authorized signatory). I have read and fully understand the boarding policies of WCVS.
